Miss Drucie Roberson—Editor

It has been six short years since we first became acquainted with the familiar sounds of Price High School. It seems as though it was only yesterday that we received our first defeat and only moments ago that we received our first real success. Yet, we know now that this is just a beginning, perhaps to something greater. Our friends, those whom we have shared so much, are about to depart. The things that we have cherished most, at this time in our lives, are swiftly moving away. What is to be, we do not know. But, there will always be one thing that will stand out--our love for dear ole Price High !!!

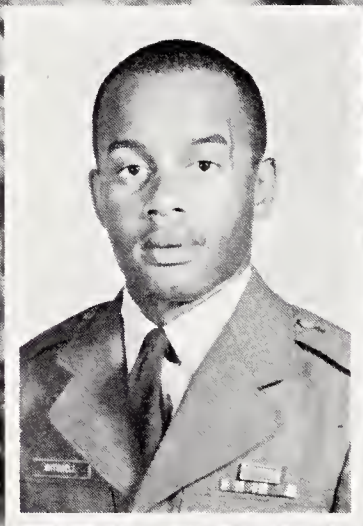

We have tried to share with you everything that has been important to us in only a few short pages. Perhaps you will be able to sense the trust, love, and admiration that we feel within ourselves as you venture into the outline which has been prepared. May you know just as we know, that . . . "Yet we know of all the rest, Price High School is still the best. We'll cherish the Black and Red."

TO THE BOYS IN VIETNAM

To those of you who've left your homes,
And left your families room;
Devoting your lives to peace for all,
Answering need when duty calls,
The 1967 graduating class
Leaves these words as we pass
Out into the world which will one day be
A world of peace, love, and security.
You are doing that now and we want you to know
We'll always be grateful to you, and so
Have hope, for it is on this that your actions are based.
Be afraid and remember you're setting
a pace;
Fight hard, but not just to win the war;
Have faith, for it is only this that victories soar;
Look to God for strength to do your job
well;
With all these things you cannot fail.
There's only moving forward, no turning back;
Give those countries the freedom they lack;
And after you've done the best you can
We'll be waiting for you back in your own native land.

sunshine,

and snow.

To each of you, remember that no matter how helpless you may be or how unimportant a part you may seem to occupy in the world's affairs, there is an open door of service somewhere waiting for you. Perhaps you have looked for it so long you have lost hope and courage. Keep your eyes open and prepare for it, for it may lie where you least expect to find it. The open door is there, and if you do not walk through it, you can blame no one but yourself.

Success in any venture is composed of nine-tenth mind desire. A physical handicap does not necessarily contribute to impairment of the brain. State of mind governs endeavor, endeavor brings success, and a successful bricklayer is just as necessary as a successful banker.

The close of this academic year, to me, is like no other. I view it with deep concern for the students who have passed this way this year, for in no other year, has the future been brighter or the opportunities to succeed greater.

Most students think that only the seniors are the recipients of bright futures and deserving scholarships, and this, in practice is true, but, the earning of these recognitions commences even as one enters high school. There is a place in the sun for the deserving, the diligent, the versatile, the academically alert student, while for the apathetic, the sloven, the evasive, the negligent student there is only the escape into "just-belonging."

To the students at Price, and especially the Seniors, we have this year opened more doors of opportunity and it is our hope that you have found them ajar. We can only point the way; you must carve the path.

Intrinsic Informers

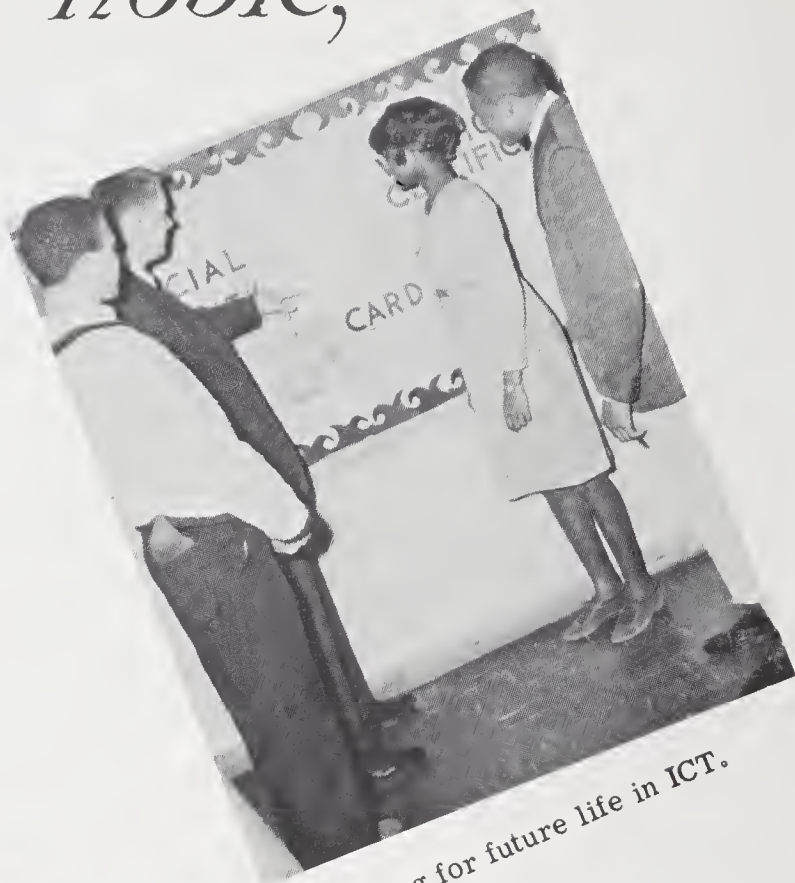

Honor has been bestowed upon us to grant recognition to two fine informers who have helped us grow physically, mentally, and spiritually.

Mrs. Duncan, for your motherly advice, inspirational guidance, pleasant friendship, and of course, your ability to help us help ourselves - Mr. Evans, for your transcendent coaching of the football and basketball team, and for your being a big brother to the boys, we say thank you!

CO-EDITOR'S MESSAGE

In this edition of the Pricean, the Class of 1967 has tried to reproduce a pictorial account of the academic, social, and cultural aspects of life at Price in the theme of the Alma mater. In spite of the accuracy of this record, however, these pictures cannot adequately photograph the spirit of the student body exhibited through harmonious chants at a basketball game, the anxiety created prior to a test, the concern displayed when a fellow student needs comforting, the reverence and devotion expressed at a Lenten Service.

Our time at Price is gradually decreasing, but we hope in years to come that these pages will serve as a reminder of our achievements, our capers, our victories, our defeats while we were here.

"We may go North, South, East or West
And by many colors be led;
But we know of all the rest,
Price High School is still the best
So we'll cherish the black and red."

Reddy To Rock

Reddy Kilowatt never misses a party. In fact, without him, things would be pretty dull. Think of it: no stereos, televisions, electric guitars or ice cubes.

Thanks to Reddy there are over 160 flameless electric servants that make modern living comfortable, economical and fun. When you have a home of your own, there will probably be even more.
